

AROUND HOME. SHEET TAKES. Nearly all the fishermen have taken their net out of Green Bay in anticipation of the break-up, which is liable to occur soon.

-We have received considerable information respecting the financial affairs of several towns, but in presence of other business prevent their publication this week.

-George Pinney sent a sleigh load of evergreens to Menominee on Saturday, and from there they were forwarded to their destination by rail. There were several hundred thousand trees and plants in the lot.

-Arrangements are in progress for a marble race to take place at opera hall on Saturday evening of this week. A marble race is similar to an orange race, only there is a great deal more of it, but the marbles are not eaten afterward.

-The following are the overseers of highway elected in the several road districts of the town of Sturgeon Bay: District No. 1, Peter Erickson; No. 2, Ole Halverson; No. 3, Clafr Thompson; No. 4, Ole T. Johnson; No. 5, C. A. Coogane.

-Potatoes are not very plentiful in this market and a good variety at sixty cents a bushel at retail. It is claimed that only a light stock remains in the hands of the farmers, and it is not unlikely that prices will remain firm during the remainder of the season.

-While Michael Melchor, an employe in Troezen's market, was in the act of cutting a round of steak on Tuesday morning the knife slipped and his edge struck him on the back of the hand, making a bad wound. The accident will disable the young man for several weeks.

-About eight o'clock on Thursday evening fire was discovered in the roof of Jacob Leonhardt's residence and an alarm sounded, but before the steamer could get out the fire was extinguished. The damage done by the fire was small, and when discovered burned a hole through the roof. Damage nominal.

-Read the new advertisements of James Morgan, C. H. Forsyth, Eugene Giles, Bay View cattle fair, above list, baby's sack found, and the city's financial exhibit, and if you haven't time today also to you may read Mr. Thompson's interesting essay upon the subject of delinquent taxes, after which you may rest yourself by studying the game law.

-Remember the dance which takes place in this city next Monday evening under the direction of the marine club. Remember also that the proceeds will be used in purchasing books and papers for the free reading room and library, and this reason, if no other, every one should assist in making the entertainment a financial success.

-We are requested by ladies of the Hope congregation to announce that the dramatic entertainment which has been in preparation for several weeks will be given on Friday evening, April 15th, at Hahn's opera hall. The programme will include "The Gypsy Chorus," "Turn of the Tide," and "Thirty Minutes for Refreshments."

-Leatham & Smith have sold the schooner Nellie Clark to Capt. George Eisenhardt and Capt. M. C. Clark for seven hundred dollars cash. The schooner was chartered for the morning, and she was lying at North Bay, where she was partly wrecked last fall. She will be repaired and employed in the cedar-carrying trade under command of Capt. Eisenhardt.

-Our readers in the vicinity of Baileys Harbor should not forget the ball which takes place at the rink on Monday evening. The dance is for the benefit of Sam Olson, of North Bay, whose residence and contents were destroyed by fire during the past winter. Mr. Olson is a good and deserving citizen and we trust that our friends will extend to him a helping hand.

-The contest for supervisor in the second ward of this city resulted in a tie vote between Ed. Elias and George Colignon, and the matter was decided by lot. Elias, Kinkead, was chosen to make the drawing, which resulted in favor of Mr. Leonard, and that gentleman was so much pleased with the result that he presented Elias with the best two-dollar hat to be found in the city.

-The ice at the foot of Spruce street has become so thin that it is unsafe for travel. This (Friday) afternoon John Harley attempted to cross to Bay View, but had proceeded only a few rods when one of the wheels of his wagon broke and the team did not go in, but it had a narrow escape. The mild weather of the past few days is rapidly wearing out the ice between the bridge and the canal, and it will not be long before that part of the bay will be open.

-Phillip Wagner, son of John Wagner, of Baileys Harbor, brought a man from that village on Thursday, and on the following morning started for home, but upon his arrival at Wm. B. Lawrence's farm his horse became so sick that it could hardly stand. It was taken to Mr. Lawrence's barn, where it still remains at this writing, but there is no hope of its recovery. John Wagner came here himself on Saturday to examine his horse, but returned on the same evening.

-THE ADVOCATE is issued two days later than usual on account of the election and the attendant rush of work incident to that occasion. In view of the fact that the elections occur on Tuesday and our paper is printed on the day following, we have determined to change the time of publication to Saturdays. This will enable us to give all the news of that week and still have the paper in the hands of its readers in nearly all parts of the county on the next day. We are of opinion that this change will meet with the approval of the public generally.

-As will be seen by the proceedings of the meeting of the board of the county agricultural society, published in to-day's paper, an effort will be made to have a farmers' institute meeting held in this city during the ensuing season. These meetings accomplish much that is good and valuable, and farmers should not miss the opportunity to attend the forthcoming convention. We also direct attention to the proceedings of the institute recently held at Black River Falls, Jackson county, which is published in full on the fourth page.

-For early returns of Tuesday's election The Advocate is indebted to Adam N. Dieter, of Horn's Pier; Joseph Nesson and Fred I. Schuyler, of Sevastopol; Andrew Gottelmann, of Neauwaapee; T. W. McCullough, of Baileys Harbor; James Halstead, of Jacksonport; Archie Wiltze, of Liberty Grove; Andrew O. Hanson, of Gibraltar; George C. Rathbone, of Egg Harbor; Felix Englobert and William Moore, of Brussels; Clement Giesse, of Union; J. C. Langemak, of Forestville; Rosa Gey, of Wausaukee; Gilbert G. McDonald, of Sturgeon Bay; and Jacob Dehos, of this city.

-Assemblyman Dreutzer sends THE ADVOCATE a copy of the assembly bill providing for the laying out of a state road between the towns of Sturgeon Bay, Neauwaapee, Forestville and Clay Banks, the southern terminus of which will be Silver Creek in Keweenaw county. The full text of the bill was published by us last week and the people of Forestville are so strongly opposed to the measure in that shape that Mr. Dreutzer concluded to modify its provisions very materially. The number of commissioners have been reduced from five to three, namely, Gilbert G. Berge, of Clay Banks, John Keogh, of Forestville and August Harman, of Neauwaapee. A tax of two mills on the assessable property of Forestville said Clay Banks is to be levied for a period of three years to build said highway, after which the tax will cease. It is probable that the bill as amended will pass.

-Joseph Colignon appeared before justice Dehos on Wednesday evening of last week and swore out a warrant for the apprehension of Matthias Koehn, of the town of Baileys Harbor, on a charge of petit larceny. Koehn was put up at the Colignon house on that day, and when ready to start for home in the evening he took two bed-quilts, a blanket and a sheep felt that had been left in the granary by Antoine Bequerette, of Gardner, the theft not being discovered until Mr. Heiququette was about to start for home. The warrant was placed in the hands of under-sheriff Scott who visited Baileys Harbor on Thursday and brought Hraska here on the evening of the same day. The culprit pleaded guilty to the charge and offered in extenuation that he was under the influence of liquor at the time. He stated further that he discovered what he had done when he reached home and immediately prepared to return the property, having packed it to be sent by stage. In corroboration of this story the officer says that he found the goods packed when he arrived at Hraska's abode. The court imposed the highest possible fine, five dollars, with the costs amounting to about twenty dollars. This was paid and Hraska returned home a sadder if not a wiser man.

The report made by W. F. Allen, class officer, gives the following as the standing of Mr. Colignon: "Ethics, fair; Shakspeare and American history, good; dynamic history and zoology, excellent."

Marine Intelligence. The steamship Sawyer was expected at Whitefish Bay on Monday to load wood for Hagen & English.

The cold snap of Monday and Tuesday will materially retard the opening of navigation. Vessels will not fit out now until there is every indication that warm weather can come to stay.

The ice on Green Bay is now as cold as it was at any time this winter, and it is not likely that navigation on that bay will be open much before the first of May.
