LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Mr. and Mrs. John Flynn, of Egg Harbor, were in the city yesterday.

L. M. Griswold, of Fish Creek, came to the city on Sunday, returning on Monday.

Mr. M. Cochems went to Chicago on business matters yesterday. He will purchase new spring goods.

The new council meets next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the city hall. This is by order of the mayor.

Silas Pinney, who has been attending college at Lebanon, Ohio, returned home the latter part of last week and will remain until the opening of the fall term.

Capt. Lovedale, formerly of the schooner America, has entered the employ of the Sturgeon Bay Lumber Co., at this place and arrived yesterday. He will sort lumber at the mills.

John Grass has put up a fine new sign in front of his saloon. Jas. Myers, the barber, has had his sign repainted, and in its present shape it is one of the finest barber shop signs in the state.

Mike Melcher, employed at Troesen Bros., meat market, met with a serious accident on Tuesday. He cut his hand with the meat knife, severing the tendons of the first and second finger of his right hand.

Capt. Campbell, who has been purchasing logs in the county during the past winter for Main Bros., of Two Rivers, has returned home to fit out the tug Goldsmith, preparatory to opening the season's business,

Mr. Chas. Crass moved his family to Ephraim last Wednesday. Mr. Crass moved there to look after the stone quarry located on his lands and in which extensive operations will be carried on this year.

Nelson J. Cutter, of Marinette, came over from Marinette Tuesday to see the women of this city exercise the right of suffrage. The sight was too much for him and the next day Mrs. Cutter, who had been visiting for some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Leonhardt, accompanied him home.

The little son of Mrs. Jeremiason, of Sevastopol, who was severely scalded last week Monday by falling into a pail of hot water, as mentioned in our last issue, died from the effects of the wound on Tuesday night. The scald had extended internally and hemorraghes set in causing the child's death.

The Easter Monday ball to be given by the Marine Club at Hahn's Opera Hall, next Monday evening promises to become an important event. The hall will be appropriately decorated and good music will be provided. It should be remembered that the funds will be used for purchasing a library for the reading-room of the club. Every body should attend.

The Marinette North Star says: Mr. A. W. Lawrence, of Sturgeon Bay, informs us that 32 years ago he traveled upon the ice across the bay, taking goods from different points along the coast on the last of April, and has done this many times since toward the last of April. This therefore is not an unheard of late season as many are trying to make it appear.

The ladies of the St. Joseph's church desire all ladies and gentlemen to remember the supper which will be served by them on the occasion of the Marine Club dance, next Monday evening. Supper will be served begining at 8 P. M. Price of supper is 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children. The proceeds will be devoted to the erection of a fine new church, which will be an ornament to the city.

An Egg Harbor justice of the peace, who also sometimes acts in the capacity of an attorney, the other day formed a combination of both and brought a party before himself to answer the complaint of the defendant's father-in-law for having boarded his daughter for the greater part of a year. After considerable jangling the case was withdrawn at plaintiff's expense of twenty dollars. Plaintiff has decided to steer clear of such combinations in the future.

Robert L. and Isaac Stephenson, Jr., of Marinette, were in the city Tuesday looking after a couple of valuable dogs, an English setter and a St. Bernard, which had strayed on the ice and had followed Rottmann's stage line until about half way across. They were unsuccessful in finding the dogs on this side and returned the same evening. As nothing further has been heard from them it is presumed that the dogs have been found.

Hugo Seidemann, of Nasewaupee, acting as agent for the mortgagee, sold what he supposed to be a mortgaged cow to John Swenson, of the town of Sturgeon Bay, for twenty-five dollars. It was learned afterwards that Seidemann had got hold of the wrong person's property and that the cow had not been mortgaged. The cow was replevied from Swenson, who in turn proposes to sue Seidemann for the money paid him for the cow, also the costs of the replevin suit; for the reason that an agent has no authority to do wrong, however innocent he may be. An agent is only protected in doing right.

Capt. Geo. Eisenhardt, of Sister Bay, has in contemplation the starting of another saloon in this city. He has in view the renting of the Shimmel building and the purchase of the saloon fixtures belonging to Fred Wright. He has also been negotiating with Leathem & Smith for the purchase of the schooner Peoria. If he purchases the vessel he will not start the saloon. Since the above was put in type Capt. Eisenhardt has informed us that he has purchased the schooner Nellie Church, now at North Bay, of Leathem & Smith, paying $700 for the same. He left this morning for Milwaukee.

The ladies of the Hope Congregation give a dramatic entertainment at Hahn's opera hall next Friday evening. The play which will be given is entitled "Turn of the Tide" a sort of temperance play. The cast of the play has been handed to us but we are somewhat cramped for space, and so leave it over for next week. The cast is however a good one and the performance promises to be an unusually successful one. A farce entitled "Thirty minutes for Refreshments" will also be rendered and a Gypsia chorous will be another attraction. We do not know what the price of admission will be, but presume that 25 cents will settle the bill for each person. The proceeds will be placed in the building fund for the new church.

At the meeting of the board of directors of the agricultural society held in the office of the secretary, C. A. Masse last Saturday afternoon the following bills were allowed: Nelson & Spear, insurance, $21.00; Frank Long, stationary, $3.50. A resolution was adopted providing "that any one who shall wilfully or against the express orders of the person having charge of the fair grounds enter upon said grounds or race track, shall be liable to a fine commensurate with the damage inflicted on said track or grounds, and in case of refusal to pay said fine, said party so offending shall be excluded from entering said fair grounds for the term of one year from and after the date of said offense." A committee was selected to arrange the building used last fall as a restaurant, into a dwelling house and secure a tenant to occupy the building and have the privilege of planting a certain portion of the grounds for his own use, for which privelege he is to oversee the grounds and buildings belonging to the association. The committee were also instructed to repair and fix up the race course for use. With the view of holding at some time in the near future a farmer's institute in this county, the secretary was instructed to correspond with Prof. Morrison, superintendent of the farmer's institutes, to learn when it would be practicable to hold one in this county, its probable cost, etc. The meeting adjourned until Saturday, May 7.

The case of Carl Schaeffer against Thomas Olson, both from the town of Sturgeon Bay, tried last week before Justice Dehos, resulted very strangely. The difficulty between them grew out of an unsettled account for labor performed by plaintiff, he claiming twenty-five dollars from defendant. Before the trial commenced Olson brought in offsets against Schaffer's claim which showed Schaeffer indebted to him in the sum of seven dollars. Thereupon Schaeffer brought in another claim against Olson for thirteen dollars more for extra labor, but rather than have any further trouble offered to take six dollars and call the suit off. This proposition was refused by Oleson, whereupon the court commenced to take the testimony. In the evening the court adjourned the case until eight in the following morning, at which hour from press of other matters before him he held the case open until one o'clock in the afternoon, when the defendant, accompanied by his attorney appeared and asked the the court to throw the case out of court, claiming that jurisdiction had been lost in thus holding the case open. After hearing the arguments the court denied the motion, remarking and properly too, that by dismissing the case on such a pretext he would be doing an injury to both parties; whereupon defendant's attorney withdrew from the case and the justice rendered judgement in plaintiff's favor for thirty-eight and 50-100 dollars and fifteen dollars costs, The defendant has taken the case to the circuit court on a writ of certiorari for review; if that court decides in plaintiff's favor defendant will have to pay the judgment as rendered by Dehos, also the costs of the hearing before the circuit court; if he decides in defendant's favor it will only necessitate a new trial. We understand defendant had a valid defense and had he presented his case he would have been successful before the justice. What he is to gain by this proceeding it is hard to see.

It is currently reported on the streets here that several parties at Fish Creek have been "roped in" by an advertisement published in certain papers offering lands in Florida free to applicants, the only requirement being that a fee of 25 cents be sent for an abstract of the land and $1 is asked to pay for the deed. The syndicate offering these lands is a fraud of the first water. The lands offered either have no existense whatever, or are everglades or cypress swamps, of no earthly use to the purchaser. We have been informed that these everglades have been staked off and when the purchaser appears to look after his property he is shown a piece of land on which it might be possible to raise a good crop of alligators, snakes, and lizards, but as to any kind of fruit or vegetables being raised there it is entirely out of the question. The holder of any of this property are simply out a dollar and a quarter, which he has given to aid one of the biggest frauds ever concocted. The large number who have been "gulled" by this scheme is another evidence of the great desire of man to obtain something without giving a fair equivalent therefore. Good Florida lands are not a drug in the market and the prices asked for a few acres of them would in many instances purchase whole farms in this neighborhood. The advertisement of this so-called "syndicate" does not appear in any legitimate newspaper or periodicals in the country, but is confined to a lot of bastard publications, of which, unfortunately, there are a large number, and of which a good number are taken in this county. These publications do not depend upon their literary merits for their success, but offer premiums in the shape of cheap picture cards, which are described as "rare works of art," as an inducement to subscribers. Securing a large circulation through these means, publications are filled with a class of advertisements which are rejected by all legitimate newspapers, and the offers seem so ridiculously cheap, that without considering that no man or corporation is voluntarily giving away anything of any value, the money is sent, and the victim learns too late that he has been "roped in" by a fraud.

On Saturday evening a company of ladies, consisting of Mrs. Chas. Scofield, Mrs. T. H. Smith, Mrs. Capt. Packard, Mrs. L. M. Sherman, Mrs. C. L. Nelson, Mrs. Y. V. Dreutzer, Mrs. Dr. Hendricks, Mrs. G. W. Prescott, Miss A. M. Potter, Miss Lucy Bacon, Miss Jessie Dreutzer Mrs. Stokes, met at the house of the last mentioned lady to discuss the late amendment of the constitution of the state of Wisconsin, allowing women to vote for all officers whose duties pertain to school affairs. Mrs. C. L. Nelson was appointed chairman. A committee was appointed consisting of Mrs. Stoakes, Mrs. Chas. Scofield, and Mrs. T. H. Smith, to confer with the city attorney and get his opinion of the legality of the ladies voting. Seven ladies were selected as canvassign committee to notify all ladies interested that a second meeting would be heldin Lawrence's hall Monday evening at seven o'clock.

On Monday evening about forty ladies met at Lawrence's Hall to listen to the report of the committee appointed on Saturday to consult the city attorney, as to the correct interpretation of the new constitutional amendment. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Chas. Scofield. Mrs. T. H. Smith was elected chairman and Miss Potter secretary, Mrs. Smith took the chair and read the following report. "Your committee beg leave to report that we consulted Y. V. Dreutzer, and his opinion is that every woman who is qualified by residence, age, naturalization, etc., according to the statute, has the right to vote at the charter election for Mayor, Alderman, Treasurer, Clerk, School Commissioner and Assessor." After reading the report, some interesting articles from the Appleton Crescent and Green Bay Advocate were read. Miss Jessie Dreutzer gave the committee a message from the gentlemen having charge of the election, saying all arrangements were all ready for the reception of the ladies at the polls Tuesday. Mrs. Chas. Scofield made some very interesting remarks pertaining to the subject under discussion. An appointment was made for the ladies to meet and go in company to the polls Tuesday morning at a given hour and a committee of three ladies was appointed to invite a number of gentlemen to accompany them. A number of gentlemen had already volunteered to do so.

The most intensly interesting and withal the most spirited municipal election ever held in this city was that of last Tuesday. The earnest and determined work by the candidates and their friends was particularly noticeable and the proberb "that all is fair in war" was carried into practical use and fully demonstrated by our local politicians, in the free for all squabble for office. But above and beyond all was the curiosity of the male voter and the great earnestness of the female voter in her attempt and accomplishment of the grand privelege heretofore only allotted to man, to cast a free, secret ballot. On last Saturday evening a number of ladies met at the residence of Mrs. Stoakes in the First ward to consider and construe the law ratified by the people at last falls election, which reads:

Every woman who is a citizen of this state of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, except paupers, persons under guardianship, and persons otherwise excluded by Sec. 2, Art. 3, of the Constitution of Wisconsin, who has resided within the state one year and in the election district where she offers to vote ten days next preceding any election pertaining to school matters shall have a right to vote at such election.

The action of the meeting of the ladies is given elswhere.

The inspectors of election, in order that no injustice should be done the candidates and that the matter should be in better shape for a construction of the law by the courts if a contest should result therefrom, arranged for separate ballot boxes for the ladies and received their votes. One hundred and ten ladies voted. It so happened that none of the candidates were elected or defeated by the votes of the ladies and consequently there will be no contest growing out of this election. The first squad of the lady voters numbering thirty-three, prepared their tickets at Lawrence's hall, formed in line and accompanied by Thos. Scott, the Rev. Betts and O. E. Dreutzer, marched to the polling place and voted; in the afternoon a large number of ladies, mostly from the second and third wards, under the leadership of Mr. C. Leonhardt, did likewise; after this ladies came in smaller bodies at various times until the closing of the polls. Many were the expressions of surprise and wonder heard from the men who until then had not heard of the new law or the intentions of the ladies to vote, and whether the time had arrived for another flood or the millenium had been reached, the crowd did not feel able to determine. The ladies when voting were treated most considerately by the men, and it was noticed when they entered the polling place the gentlemen smoking removed their pipes from their mouths and otherwise behaved most gallantly. The ladies appeared to appreciate their new rights of suffrage greatly. The ladies were allowed to vote in Waupaca, Ft. Howard, Fond du Lac, Portage, Kenosha, and other places in the state. The election in this city resulted as follows. The first three columns represent the male vote in the three wards and the next three the female vote, the next column being the total and the last column the majority of the successful candidates:

BAY VIEW.

The town board of the town of Sturgeon Bay, meet at Goettelman's hall next Tuesday to have the new officers qualify fix bond for town clerk, treasurer, road masters, and fix the mill tax, and receive application for saloon licenses.

The town election passed off quietly. An effort was made to change the town board but was unsuccessful. The old officers were elected as follows: Supervisors, Kearn Bowe ch'n., Charles Wulf, A. E. Everson; M. MacDonald, clerk; E. N. Anderson, treasurer; S. Samuelson, assessor; justice of the peace; Geo. Noble, S. Samuelson, Geo. Pinney to fill vacancy; constables, S. Cleveland, John Gilbert.

SALONA.

SALONA, April 4.—Bert Warren and Nellie Darling went to Forestville last Friday to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Langemak. They also took in Ahnapee on their way home.

The Rev. Mr. Miller, of Ahnapee, accompanied by his wife and daughter Grace, visited among us a few days last week. He also held services in the hall Thursday evening. This will probably be his last trip to this place for some time as he expects to leave Ahnapee shortly for the southern part of the state where he owns a farm.

Mr. John Campbell returned home last Sunday from the west shore, where he was employed in one of W. H. Horn's cedar camps during the past winter.

Miss Carrie Roberts, of Sevastopol, visited among us last week, being the guest of the Misses Nellie Darling and Alice Spalsbury.

Miss Mary Hoslett left for Newport last Saturday morning, as her school commenced the following Monday.

FORESTVILLE.

Election passed off quietly. We had a regular blizzard Monday—just for a change you know.

Our decipies of Isaac Walton are getting ready for the coming sport. Pickerel are expected in a few days. Look out, boys, the law prohibits spearing fish.

Richard Hauch caught a fish otter near the river one day last week. These animals are becoming very scarce in this region, not one of them having been seen since the great fire of 1871.

Four children of Chas. Zastrow are down with typhoid fefev. Later reports say that three of them are convalescent, but the oldest boy is very low.

Through some unaccountable and, we might say inexcusable blunder of the job printer in some office, (the fellow should call it a shop) the regularly nominated town ticket was made to read, "For Justice of the Peace—Jos. Meyer, instead of "For Constable—Jos. Meyer." Mr. Meyer was not a candidate for justice of the peace, but ran for constable, an office he has held for a number of years. A great many voters did not notice the mistake and voted Mr. Meyer for justice and came near electing him for that office. As it was he was defeated for constable by only a few votes. Joe takes it cool and says he would have been proud to be called Judge.

The following is the result of the election on Tuesday: Chairman, John Fetzer; Supervisors, Jos. Goetz, August Ross; Clerk, Alex Lawson; Treasurer, Luke Keogh; Assessor, Pat McDermott; Justice of the Peace, Alex Lawson, G. J. Anderson; Constables, Geo. Jorgerson, August Kumm, Geo. Fagg.

A Card.

The women voters of Sturgeon Bay return sincere thanks to the gentlemen who so kindly aided and encouraged us in our trial vote of Tuesday. Relying on the honor of a few to protect us, we were agreeably surprised on reaching the polls, to find we had the cheerful sanction of the many; and we proudly believe, and thank Heaven for that belief, that, on that day, throughout the state, our men will stand forth unrivalled in courtesy to the ladies; and may other women, when they hear of our success, unite with us in saying, "All honor to the gentlemen of Sturgeon Bay."
